

Review meeting within TEMPUS - VERITAS project

On April 8 at the Northern University a meeting within TEMPUS-VERITAS project was held with the representatives of ERASMUS+(TEMPUS) national bureau-Lana Karlova and Edith Soghomonyan.

The meeting was aimed to discuss the results of trainings and achievements and activities done within the project.

The members of the project team of HEIs and co-workers, who participated in trainings at European universities, presented their obtained valuable experience, which they use at the process of postgraduate education reforms at the University now.

Particularly the Vice-rector of the University's publishing activities Gregory Asatryan and the Head of Economics and management Chair Armen Tshughuryan presented the whole base of the legal documents of the postgraduate education management as well as the challenges of the postgraduate education pilot project according to the Salzburg principals.

The observations of the ERAZMUS+(TEMPUS) national bureau's programs coordinator Lana Karlova were referred to the website materials' periodically updating process, She also talked about being more active and initiative in the process of the educational reforms as a representative of the private sector of the education.

